

How to create a FREE PayPal account while you are signing up for an SBRA Membership.

It's very easy to create a FREE PayPal account "while" you are signing up for an SBRA Membership right from our website. Below are some basic instructions to assist you.

First ...

You must first create a User Account on the SBRA website (basic login account).

If you do not currently have a User Account you can create one at the link below:

<http://www.sbraweb.org/?q=user/register>

Now ... How to Sign Up for an SBRA Membership and Pay using PayPal:

Please log in to your User Account on the SBRA website and then go to the link below:

<http://www.sbraweb.org/?q=catalog/30>

Click on the "SBRA Membership 1 Year" link and fill out the few fields there, then click the "Add to cart" button.

You will then be moved directly to the Shopping cart, from there click the "check out" button.

In the Billing Information area click on the pull down menu & select your name and the system will fill in the rest.

Click the "Review order" button.

Then click the "Submit Order" button.

At this point you will be temporarily redirected to the PayPal payment screen.

Click on the "Create a PayPal account" link and enter your credit card information there.

Once you have completed the free PayPal account the system will redirect you back to the SBRA website.

It's that easy so give it a try.

There is no cost to you for creating and using this PayPal account for your SBRA Membership purchase.

Be sure to keep your PayPal login information in a safe place so you can use it again next year.
